GREAT ADVERTISING MEDIUM.
TRY IT!

VOL XVII. WASHINGTON, D. C., SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1898. No. 24

HON. R. T. THORP.
Republican Candidate for Congress from the Fourth (Va.) District.
See 5th page.

Senator Quay—Will win.

THEY SAY

Reformers are from the Division now.

How much did Champ Clark pay the jack of clubs?

Why doesn't he sign something?

Talk is cheap for gamblers and cut throats.

The recent school reformers are composed of black legs, cut throats, and gamblers.

They all want a job or any thing in sight.

The leading reformer is a political floater, black leg and gambler.

You can see him any time with a cane in his hand hollering up men on the street who are as crazy as he is.

No sensible man will talk with him.

Only the fool will listen to his tale of woe.

Why does a negro want to be a democrat after the North Carolina escapades.

Chickens will come home to roost.

Dogs will bark no matter what you or do to them.

Think wisely and act accordingly.

Do as you think best.

When alleged reputable physicians lower themselves with the common gambler, the people have their opinion of them.

Be truthful as well as honest.

What has become of our new leadership in North Carolina politics.

Be what you are and nothing more.

The bums held a mass meeting last Monday night.

Some men are born fools and some are made fools.

While some other would rather be fools than anything else.

The color question is at fever heat in North Carolina.

When you know it all you should keep it to yourself.

Lookout for the Thanksgiving edition of the BEE.

S. B. Hege is a popular man.

You should be careful how you navigate.

The colored schools are in need of a sewing director.

If you don't know it all say so.

Some negro politicians are in need of good sense.

The Secretary of the Treasury is doing the handsome thing for the negro.

Harry Williams was presented a 9 pound boy last Thursday week.

He is a happy boy now.

Moral reformers are coming from the Division now.

All this world is a stage and the people are merely players.

L. D. Wine will be the next postmaster.

The President should consult the republican national committee.

There is too much treachery among some colored men.

It is the noble man who does noble deeds.

Do your duty always.

Some people will lie when the truth will suit better.

If you want a live paper you should read the BEE.

It is your friends who will impose upon you.

Thorp will be elected beyond all doubt.

The next House of Representatives will be republican.

The democratic party doesn't want the negro.

We can free Cuba, but we can not protect colored republican voters in North Carolina.

The Health Office is doing some good work.

The school candidates are having a hard time.

The Divison reformers are supporting a woman who is as bad as they are.

Style, Fit and Workmanship GUARANTEED.

Caution!—There have recently been issued several cheap reprints of the 1847 edition of Webster's Unabridged Dictionary, an edition long since superannuated. These books are given various names,—"Webster's Unabridged," "The Great Webster's Dictionary," "Webster's Big Dictionary," "Webster's Encyclopedic Dictionary," etc., etc.
Many announcements concerning them are very misleading, as the body of each, from A to Z, is 44 years old, and printed from cheap plates made by photographing the old pages.

WHITE MEN RESIGN.

When Hon. Joseph E. Lee, the newly appointed Collector of Internal Revenue, assumed charge of his office on Tuesday last, all of the white clerks left the office and refused to return. Mr. Lee is one of the most brainy and polished colored men in the South and is doubtless the superior in intellect and moral of any of the white men who refused to work under him This exhibition of color prejudice should receive the strongest and most speedy rebuke. The Civil service Commission which is supposed to supervise such offices should at once recommend the dishonorable discharge of the offenders as a just punishment for insubordination. This interferance with the routine of a federal office needs the vigorous treatment it deserves and the President ought to take a hand if necessary. The spirit of defiance to constituted authority which is daily manifesting itself at the South and which is making inoperative the constitutional rights and privileges of citizens should be rebuked and rebuked strongly. This would seem proper if for no other reason than that the national tendency is to spread until the whole country may become infected. Much has been said about the Nihilists and Socialists and their direful influence upon our political and morals institutions. They were justly rebuked by the sober sense of the American people.

They were but a handful and with restricted influence. Yet here we have a condition of lawlessness, defiance, murder and repine in which whole communities are participating and we have yet to hear of any organized opposition to it on the part of the good people. On the contrary it seems to be winked at and encouraged by the press, and even the pulpit. In the gratification of an intense color prejudice the masses of the whites have lost sight of the awful consequences of wrong doing and are submitting to a state of anarchy which puts to shame the boasted christianity of the people. God grant that the evil consequences of this prejudice may be averted. But assassination and tyranny are not forces to be encouraged if the country is to maintain its claims to civilization. The life of the nation whose mainspring is obedience to law, is being severely tested and will be endangered so long as murder and wrong are winked at.

THE NEGRO MUST DIE.

Hope Adams, colored candidate for sheriff, at Forth Worth, Texas, was shot and killed on the 24th of October. He was a candidate against the white man's union association.

The editor of the Atlanta Appeal has the courage of his convictions. While he admits that he is a democrat, he is more than anxious to see colored men elected to Congress.

The outlook in Maryland for the republicans is good. There is no doubt of the election of Messrs. Mudd and Pearre and probably three other republidan Congressmen.

NO RACE WAR.

The political murders which are taking place at the South are represented as the result of a race war. There is no shadow of truth in the claim. The methods now being used to disfranchise the colored people are nothing more than the application of the Mississippi plan to North Carolina politics. Moreover, the facts shows that the southern whites are growing more and more bold in their hellish methods. At one time there were secret bands who under cover of night hideous with their shotguns and fire-brands. The good white people disclaimed participation and told the people at the North that they were not responsible and that the villany was the work of the poor vicious and irresponsible whites. Now they have torn off the mask and with unblushing villany, in broad daylight, they murder and bulldoze.

Moreover, they seem proud to do so and the best people are engaging in the scheme. The people have been permitted to do wrong so long until now they insult and kill federal officers with impunity and presume to dictate to the President himself as to the persons he should select to assist in his administration. There is no race war and the dispatches which come up from the South are colored to decieve the people. It is an insult to the progressive and toleran. North to be cheated out of their proper representation in Congress and their rights are involved as well as those of the persecuted colored voters.

SOUTHERN CHIVALRY.

What does it means? The galantry and patriotism of the negro soldiers in the late Spanish-American war and his loyalty to the American Republic in the late war of the rebellion are not regarded by the southern oligarchy as commendable acts and deeds to rase the citizenship of the negro. The reign of terror in North Carolina is a repetition of klu kluxism a little subsequent to reconstruction. The colored citizen of North Carolina is told if he puts a republican ticket in the field or attempts to vote on Election Day he will be killed. It is a question of conjecture with us whether it would be wise for the negro to resent the insult or repel these threats with armed force or whether it would be wise for him to remain away from the polls. If he goes to the polls, has he got sufficient force to protect himself? And if he attempts to protect himself will he be reinforced and will that reinforement be strong enough to withstand any opposite power that might come against him? Under the constitution we are told that the chief executive is powerless to send troops to the scene of action to protect life and property. Unless the negro of North Carolina is strong enough to meet any emergency our advice to him is to remain away from the polls. The negro should be convinced by now that the democratic party is not friendly disposed toward him and notwithstanding the many false pretenses of the friendship that party has for for him, the time has not come for him to join the democrtic party.

Every colored voter in North Carolina should peaceably endeavor to cast one republican ballot next Tuesday.

The party of Sumner, Lincoln, Garrison, Stephens, Lovejoy, Mott and all that sainted host of anti-slavery workers is now on trial: A vote for the republican ticket is a vote for them. A vote for the democratic ticket is a vote for Jeff Davis, Bob Toombs, Calhoun, Ben Tillman and all the evil represented by these iconoclasts.

It is a mistery to us how a colored man can allie himself with the democratic party South after the barbarous outrages committed upon the negroes in North Carolina and Mississippi.

MR. S. B. HEGE PROMOTED.

One of the most popular and deserving promotions, by the management of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, is that of Mr. S. B. Hege to the position of General Agent of the Passenger Department at Washington. There is no railroad man in this city more popular among the citizens of Washington than Mr. Hege.

Notwithstanding many arduous duties, in connection with the railroad company, he has taken particular interest in the affairs of the city among the people. The numerous friends of Mr. Hege and the citizens of Washington are particularly pleased and gratified at the promotion of a worthy and deserving man. He is a real gentleman, affiable, liberal and noble. The BEE extends to Mr. Hege its congratulations and hope that he will continue to be elevated until he arrives at the top of the ladder.

IS IT A CONSPIRACY?

We have it from the most reliable source that the colored officers in the Sixth Virginia regiment who have been displaced for white officers is nothing more than military conspiracy. This regiment has asked to be mustered out and quite likely it will be done. Lawyer James H. Hayes of Richmond, Va., is in the city and had a talk with the President on Thursday concerning the appointment of white officers in this regiment. There is undoubtedly sufficient evidence in the possession of Lawyer Hayes to show a conspiracy. Can the President under the circumstances and such conditiones afford to muster out this regiment?

IT WILL NOT WORK.

The negro sharks who claim to be canvassing and supporting Congressman Mudd, in Maryland cannot beat that gentleman out of money by denouncing the editor of the BEE. The BEE has never asked for one cent to support Mr. Mudd or any other republican. Can some of Mr. Mudd's supporters say as much? Neither has the BEE asked any democrat for money Can any of the so-called negro republican journals that are claiming to be Mr. Mudd's supporters, say as much? Mr. Mudd is on to the fleece racket.

Vote the republican ticket next Tuesday. The safety of the nation depends upon the success of our party at the polls.

"The republican party is the ship, all else is the sea." So said the late Frederick Douglass, than whom there was no greater lover of liberty, no abler champion of human rights, no better friend to the oppressed.

No wonder the Cubans and the Philippinos look with fear and distrust upon American occupation and control The way we treat our own citizens in North Carolina and other southern States is positive proof that their doubts are well founded.

The States of Louisiana, Mississippi and North Carolina are virtually out of the Union. We expect to see others to catch this contagion of outlawry until the North will again rise in its might and crush out forever the hydra-headed monster of race hate.

If the southern whites should get control of Cuba it would be but a transfer of masters, the latter being worse than the former.

A nation that cannot protect the lives and property of its own citizens stultifies itself before the world in boasting of its intentions and ability to establish and maintain good government for others.

Where the Roman Catholic religion predominates in the United States, there you will find the bigest state of modern civilization and the least friction between the races. The Protestant religion largely predominates at the South.

LAWYER JONES RETIRES.

PARTY SUCCESS ABOVE PERSONAL AMBITION.

An Appeal to Fourth (Va.) District Republicans to Support Congressman Thorp.

AN ADDRESS ISSURED BY MR. JONES SATURDAY.—NO LONGER IN THE FIELD.

Hon. R. T. Thorp, of the Fourth Virginia District, was in the city on last Saturday. He and Lawyer Jones had an interview with the Congressional Committee in company with Editor W. Calvin Chase of the BEE. After some deliberation Mr. Jones decided that he would withdraw his claims as a candidate for Congress from the Fourth Congressional District of Virginia. Notwithstanding the fact that Mr. Jones' name appears on the official ballot, he urges his friends and the republicans of his district to vote for Mr. Thorp. The address is as follows:

Washington, D. C., Oct. 22, 1898.

To the Republican voters of the Fourth Congressional District of Virginia:

It is well known to you that I was a candidate for the republican nomination for Congress in our district, and sought the nomination at the Chase City Convention. The delegates to that convention divided and organized two conventions, one nominating me; the other nominating Hon. R. T. Thorp.

The Republican Party is far greater than either of us. The maintenance of its asendency is of more importance than the success of any individual. The question as to who is the regular and legal nominee of our party has been submitted to our highest party authorities. The National Congressional Committee has decided that the Hon. R. T. Thorp is the regular legal nominee for Congress. He is recognized as such by the national committee, presided over by the Hon. M. A. Hanna, and is recognized by all party authorities as the friend of the national administration, in the success of which all republicans are deeply interested and feel a just pride.

While I am sincerely thankful to the friends who have stood by me—my interest in the welfare of the Republican Party and my devotion to its principles will not permit me to stand in the way of its success. I therefore take this opportunity to let the republican voters of our district know that I have withdrawn, and do now retire from the race for Congress, and I call upon all true republicans, especially upon those who have heretofore favored my candidacy, to go to the polls on November 8, 1898, and cast their ballots for the Hon. R. T. Thorp, the regular and only republican nominee for Congress in our district. While my name will necessarily appear upon the official ballot—it being now too late to prevent this—I trust you will not vote for me. By so doing you will simply aid the democratic candidate. Mr. Thorp is a true republican, a firm supporter of the administration of our President, and is a gentleman in every way worthy of your support. I propose to support him myself and urge every republican in the district to give him their cordial support.

Very respectfully,
THOMAS L. JONES.

I, William Calvin Chase, a notary public in and for the District of Columbia, acknowledge the above to be the signature of Thomas L. Jones.
W. CALVIN CHASE,
Notary Public.

Hon. R. T. Thorp, the republican nominee for Congress in the 4th district of Virginia was born in Granville County North Carolina, educated at the University of Virginia, where he took both, an academic and law course He graduated with the degree of B. L., and was awarded the debaters medal of the Jefferson Society after a memorable and heated contest Mr. Thorp removed to Virginia before attaining his majority, and soon afterwards began the practice of law at Boydton, the county seat of Mecklenburg County, where he has resided ever since. He soon took a high stand at the bar, and was appointed by the court Commonwealth's attorney, a position which he held for eighteen consecutive years.

In 1894 while holding this office, he took strong grounds in favor of having a republican candidate nominated for Congress. This did not meet the entire approval of the party organization. Though the district was known to be overwhelmingly republican, it was deemed useless to make a fight under the partisan election law passed by a democratic legislature and the infamous methods resorted to by that party in many places in the district. At the republican convention held at Burkeville in August 1894, he was nominated by acclamation for Congress. His democratic competitor was awarded the certificate of election; but the returns were successfully impeached in a contest, and Mr. Thorp was seated as a member of the 54th Congress by the unanimous vote of the House, upon the unanimous report of Elections Committee No. 3.

In 1896, he was again nominated for Congress, was again deprived of the certificate, and again successfully contested the election and was seated as a member of the 55th Congress, of which he is now a member. By leave of the House Mr. Thorp argued his own case upon the floor in a speech of one hour, which electrified his friends. This speech was pronounced by many to have been one of the most eloquent and effective ever delivered by a contestant upon the floor of Congress. It at once placed him in the fore front of the advocates of fair election laws and fair election methods.

Mr. Thorp is again the nominee of the republican party for Congress, and is conducting an active and aggressive campaign. There was a controversy as to who was the regular nominee of the party, the convention having divided. This controversy has now been finally settled as will seen by the address of Hon. Thomas L. Jones, and Mr. Thorp is now accepted by all as the regular and only republican nominee for Congress in the 4th District of Virginia. With a united party, as there will now be in that district, Mr. Thorp's election is assured. He is a warm supporter of the Administration and his success will be regarded as a victory for the Administration.

Johnson Anderson, colored, at Lafayette, Ala., was taken from jail on the 23rd of October and riddled with bullets.

HAS'NT THE TIME.

From the Wichica Tim

Every negro should lay aside personal differences, roll up his sleeves, go into the thickest of the battle, and when the smoke has cleared away, step up and demand something.

The negro hasn't the time to get together. It takes all his time to look after each other's business. The only time the negro gets together is when he enters a street car and sees another sitting in a crowded seat.

CHARGE OF EMBEZZLEM

Edward V. Davis, was arrested Monday by Detective Lacey on the charge of embezzling $1,168.39 from the John Wesley M. E. Church on Connecticut avenue. The complaint against Davis was made by William H. Johnson of 2027 L street and Rev. W. A. M Cephas, pastor of the church. Inspector Mattingly detailed Mr. Lacy to make the arrest.

It is alleged that the embezzlement has been practiced at different periods extending over about eighteen months. It is also stated that in each case below mentioned Davis, who was a member of the finance committee, was given a check for the sum named to deposit in bank, and by means various excused he secured the endorsement of two trustees by which he was enabled to draw the money.

The dates of the allege embezzlements and amount taken in each are alleged to be as follows: March 9, 1897 $77 5; April 6, $66.90; May 6, $81 04; June 8, $65.35; July 8, $66 05; August 13, $62.48; September 13, $64.50; October 15, $71.49; November 16, $52.91; December 15, $63 65; January 22, 1898, $87.88; Febraury 18, $77 74; March 17, $73 15; April 24 $46.65; May 25, $38.67; June 28, $29.93; July 14, $26 88; August 25, $11.59; September 26, $33.33; October 24, $47 35.

Within the past few days a rumor reached the church authorities that Davis had not been depositing the money intrusted to him, and after ascertaining the amount of the shortage Davis was summoned to come before the trustees Tuesday evening and explsin his conduct. He failed to do so and his arrest followed.

Mr. Gilbert Joy in conversation with a BEE representative said on Tuesday at court that Davis was not given a chance to explain. That he should have been brought before the church first before he was placed under arrest. Lawyer Payton was retained as Davis counsel and boad in the sum of $1000 was given.

WILLIAM H. FLEMING vs. SAKS and COMPANY.

VERDICT FOR PLAINTIFF.

When the case of William H. Fleming against Saks and Company was called in Circuit Court No. 1, before Justice Cole, Attorney Perri W. Frisby, who represented the plaintiff, announced that his client was unable to be present, as he was at work for the defendant and his services could not be dispensed with for the day. This occasioned considerable surprise in the court room until the nature of the case was disclosed by a statement from the attorney.

Mr. Fleming was employed by Saks and Company as a saleman and a company insures Saks and Company against accident to his employes. Some time ago Mr. Fleming met with an injury and brought suit before Justice of the Peace Mills to secure damages in the sum of $300.

This amount was allowed him and the case was taken to a higher court in order to enforce judgment so that Saks and Company can properly present the claim to the Accident Company. This suit so far as the plaintiff and the defendant are concerned is an entirely amicable one. The case being explained, it was allowed to go over.

The case was called and the jury remaing out eight hours, was instructed by Judge Cole of the Supreme Court, to return their sealed verdict on Monday and in accordance therewith found for Lawyer Frisby's client damages in the sum of $189.

OUR SEWING DEPARTMENT.

AN UNPOPULAR AND CONTRARY DIRECTRESS.—WHAT THE RESULT OF A CHANGE WOULD BE—UNANIMOUS COMPLAINT.

Perhaps the hardest worked teachers in the public schools, are those in the sewing department. With a contrary and unpopular sewing directress, the teachers are having a hard time. It is not supposed that Superintendent Cook is aware of the contrary and arbitrary actions of this sewing directress. The program of this department is the most "zig zag" instrument that one would desire to read, and whenever a teacher goes to the one who has charge of this department she is either insulted or she is told that such and such a change can not be made, although it is for the best interest of the schools. There are several young ladies in this department who stand high in this community and who are entitled to consideration. As a sample of the arbitrary action of this directress the BEE will give a few. A teacher who resides on Meredian Hill is sent either to South Washington or in the neighborhood of the Government Printing Office, A teacher who lives in South Washington where she had previously taught and made a record, she is sent near the jail and the teacher who lives in that vacinity or in the northeast, is sent entirely out of the reach of cars. The report is that the directress of sewing has assumed the authority to make an assistant out of one of the teachers, without the authority of the superintendent or the industrial committee. This teacher is called to the Sumner building two or three times a week ostensibly of assisting the directress. If she is sent out to teach she is given two schools not too feet from the directress office.

The BEE wants to know what right has this discrimination to be made when all the sewing teachers are supposed to fare alike. If a teacher should ask this modern reformer of the sewing department if they can exchange so that it will be more convenient to them and especially in wet and rainy weather, she replies in a most insulting manner, by telling them that Mr. Cook will not permit it. The BEE is of the opinion that Mr. Cook is not a party to anything that would inconvenience his teachers.

The committee on industrial education is requested to investigate this alleged assistant in the sewing department and other irregularities in this "zig zag" program.

OTHER DEPARTMENTS

are governed differently. Misses George of the physical culture department and Cook of the cooking department are ladies of refinement who sympathize with their ladies teachers. Their disposition is not ot show that they are the "bosses" but to advance the best interest of their schools.

Miss George is reported as calling to her room all of her teachers, and methods are discussed and plans suggested as to the most convenient way to make the work agreeable to her teachers.

Miss Cook does the same thing. If a certain route is inconvenient to the teacher these ladies get together and discuss the "ifs" and "ands."

They don't set up and lecture their teachers as though they were a lot of school children.

A directress should have the respect and confidence of her teachers.

The question is, why should Miss Griffin, who is the logical first assistant and an experienced and competent lady be subordinated for one less experienced?

ROYAL BLUE TRAINS.

In September last, railway officials from London were sent to America, to get ideas on the railway passenger service of the leading lines in this country, and in their official report, which was printed in the London Times in January, it was stated that the "Royal Blue Line" series of magnificent passenger trains, running between New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington, lead the world for quick and exquisite train service.

The "Royal Blue Line" service consists of nine elegant passenger trains a day in each direction between the cities named above. They are the finest and fastest trains in the world. Their equipment was built especially for the service by the Pullman Company, and includes every modern convenience known for the comfort of passengers. The trains are vestibuled from end to end, and hauled by the strongest and fastest locomotives in the United States.

The exquisite day coaches of these trains are worthy of special note. They are beautifully upholstered, each containing a washroom and smoking compartment.

The parlor cars are the most palatial ever built, being fully seventy-three feet long. In addition to this service, three new parlor cars were added in April, and are the first of this kind ever run; they are richly upholstered and ornamented throughout in most beautiful designs. A ladies' retiring-room is provided in one end of the car. This room, which is six feet square, is furnished with a beautiful dresser with large mirror and a number of drawers. On each side of it are upholstered corner seats In another corner is a bookcase and stationary washstand The room was designed for especial comfort of ladies, who have always claimed men had the best of it when travelling. The usual smoking apartment, however, is at the opposite end of the car.

The dining cars are operated by the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company, and especial attention is given to the menu. Every delicacy is served in season, and the service is unsurpassed.

In addition to the already perfect service of "Royal Blue Trains" mentioned above, there will be put into service May 15 a "Royal Limited" train, which will leave New York at 1.00 P. M., making the run to Washington in FIVE hours. Returning, the "Royal Limited will leave Washington at 3.00 P. M., arriving New York at 8.10 P M. The "Royal Blue Line" will then boast of three trains which make this extraordinary fast time between Washington and New York, which has never been attained by any other line. The "Royal Blue Trains" between Baltimore and Washington make the run in FORTY-FIVE MINUTES—the fastest regular service ever attained between the two cities.

The terminal at New York City is the most convenient for all points in Greater New York. Passengers can land at South Ferry (Whitehall Terminal), where, under the same roof, connection is made with the elevated lines of the second, Third, Sixth and Ninth Avenues, and the Broadway, Lexington and Columbus Avenue Cables. All the Brooklyn Ferries also start from this point, and by taking Ama:—It is unnecessary to fret over what people may say. No lady will respect another.

T. M. T.—Always wear dresses becoming to your complexion.

Ollie:—There is no doubt that you will realize your expectation.

M. J.—Some people will mistake your disposition for something else.

E. McG.—You should not fret. A refined disposition will commend one.

O. M.—If your escort cannot accompany you to the reception, certainly it would be in bad taste for him to call for you.

Miss E. T.—Benefits are given to the deserving. You should be popular enough to command all classes.

Music—There is yet a lack of uniformity in the musical department of the public schools.

M. M.—The only means that you have to know is to read such books that will give you the information.

C. T.—A young lady should be very careful with whom she associates. There is not enough care taken in the selection of those we select as associates.

L. M. T.—Your reading should be of the select character. By all means it should be solid as well as instructive.

D. T.—Don't be too familiar on short acquaintance. It results in no good.

B. O.—It is the honest girl who succeeds. You may believe in gayety, but it will never win a solid man.

Tillie:—Style may be alright some times. It often turns the head of some people.

T. I.—A modest girl is bound to command respect and admiration.

Letters:—Always write your letters so that a third party can read them. Never write secrets in a letter, not even to your best friend.

Ella:—Marry if you think you will better your condition. It is folly to marry trouble.

L. T.—Honesty is bound to be rewarded sooner or later. The gay butterfly may fly for awhile, but the honest and refined girl will win in the end.

Ama:—It is with you whether you succeed or not. You are the guardian of your own future. It cannot be stolen from you without your knowledge or consent.

S. T.—Always be of service to those who have, in any way, aided you.

L. O.—Too much interest is not necessary to be tolerated. It means no good.

I. T.—Yes, be a positive character in your dealings with all persons.

N. T.—Neatness is one of the winning features in any one.

Miss R. M.—Mrs. Wm. Bell Lowe was recently elected president of the General Federation of Woman's Clubs.

Nellie:—Mrs. S. Stewart Frackelton was the first woman potter in this country.

D. M.—The stage is becoming more refined. There is as much sedateness and culture on the stage as you will find anywhere.

T. M.—The ladiese of the colored public schools have organized a teachers benefit association. It is succeeding very well.

Mattie:—It is not necessary for you to work so hard. You will get no credit for it. The most successful person is the one who takes his time.

School:—Yes, there is a disagreement over a salary. The Commissonners have taken a hand in it. What the outcome will be is not known.

Lizzie:—It is hard to understand what you mean. You should be one thing or the other.

M. T.—You are studying French. Do you not think that a business education is better? French will suit a lady of leisure more so than it will one who doesn't expect to be in society.

Rockie:—No girl should permit a young man to monopolize her time without coming to some understanding. After asking the privilege of calling, a man should by all means make his intentions known.

School:—Yes, there are entirely too many bosses in the public schools. One boss's rules conflicts with the other and the results are usually poor.

L. E.—A person with empty brains should not be expected to have good sense.

Rachel:—Take my advice and don't be so suspicious. Your home affairs should be kept to yourself.

A. B.—Your case is a serious one. Don't act like you are anxious to wed and he may propose. Men like to seek and not to be sought after.

Essie:—Yes one can always tell when another is used to any thing. Suspicious people are usually the most guilty.

R. R.—Only silly people boast of their wealth. There are but few rich Afro-Americans.

Emma:—Don't be alarmed as it is only the dissatisfidd person who is continually finding fault.

F. T.—It is always best to do your duty notwithstanding what some other people may say.

SECRET ORDERS.

Chicago, October 29th, 1898—The Illustrious L. W. Pulies, 33°, grand secretary general.

The clipping from the WASHINGTON BEE came to hand and in reply to it I will state that in the year of 1889 while I was serving as lieutenant grand commander of the United Supreme Council, the Ill. Thornton A. Jackson, who was then the sovereign grand commander, and Frederick C. Revell, was then grand secretary general. It was reported and stated that Thornton A. Jackson and Frederick C. Revell did issue a charter to a lodge in Florida under the United Supreme Council which I myself had nothing to do with because it was done under the outhority and direction of T. A. Jackson who was then the soverign grand commander. In the year of 1895, when I was elected the sovereign grand commander, Illustrious Seville wanted to know if our United Supreme Council would organize lodges of Master Masons and give them a charaer in Washington, D. C. and other places and I distinctly and emphatically said: "No." He, Seville, referred me to the work that was done in Florida by Thornton A. Jackson. I told him that it made no difference to me how much bogus and spurious work in masonery Thornton A. Jackson had ever done, that his work was no criterian for me and I refused to do it, and if he, Seville, says at any time that I have ever organized a lodge of master Masons in Washington or anywhere else in the world under our United Supreme Council, he is a falsifyer and I call upon him to name the lodge or the place that any work of that kind was done under me or by my sanction, advice and authority. Our United Supreme Council has no control or authority and has nothing to do whatever with the Entered Apprenticed Fellow Craft and Master Mason degrees. Those degrees are conferred in a Blue lodge working under a grand lodge, and I want it distinctly understood that I have got nothing to do with any of the work in the blue lodges nor do I claim to exercise any power or authority or control over them.

I challenge any Mason in Washington to produce a document of any kind where I authorized any blue lodges of Master Masons to assemble and work under the auspices of the United Supreme Council of the Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite.

In the year of 1895 we had a consistory and a temple organizee at Grand Rapids, Mich., and there was only one Grand Lodge in the State at that time and it was not under the national compact and I will give the sum of $100 to any mason who will prove that when we organized a consistory and temple at Grand Rapids, Mich., that it was under the national compact at that time. About a year ago they had a split in the grand lodges of that State and another independent grand lodge was organized, and so far as I know none of the subordinate lodges or the grand lodge either are under the national compact. Whoever says that I recommended or requested any lodge or body of masons to join the compact is a scoundrel, a rascal, a villian, a falsifyer.

Yours fraternaly,
John P. Jones 33,
Supreme Grand Commander.
